

Moran to Take Viewers' Calls During Appearance on Kansas Public TV

BUNKER HILL - Congressman Jerry Moran will take calls from viewers to discuss current issues facing Congress during a live television appearance Friday, May 25, on Smoky Hills Public Television. The program, entitled "A Conversation with Jerry Moran," will air from 8:30 to 9:30 p.m. Viewers will be able to call in toll-free at 800-337-4788 with questions for Moran.

Dr. Richard Heil with the Political Science and Justice Studies Department and Docking Institute of Public Affairs at Fort Hays State University will host the program for Smoky Hills Public Television. Joining him will be Patrick Lowry, editor and publisher of the Hays Daily News.

Consult your local cable company or local program guide to determine the public television channel in your area. The recorded program will re-air on Sunday, May 27 at 5:00 p.m.

###